• An artist's impression of the new Westgate Centre

By Dominic Thomas

DEVELOPERS have confirmed a further 22 retailers who will be taking stores in the new Westgate Centre due to open in October 2017.

High-end retailers Hugo Boss, Ted Baker and Calvin Klein are among the new brands taking the total number of confirmed lets at the shopping centre to 35.

More than half of the retail units (51 per cent) to be opened at Westgate have now been let, or agreements are in the hands of solicitors.

Other newly-confirmed brands include Victoria's Secret, Pret, Office and local independent booksellers Blackwells, in addition to high-street chains John Lewis, H&M and Primark.

The finished project is set to include more than 100 stores, 25 restaurants and cafes, a boutique cinema and a wealth of new public spaces in the new centre, which will open in time for Christmas 2017.

Man, 37, is jailed for life on fatal stabbing

A 37-YEAR-OLD Abingdon man was jailed for life this week for stabbing dad-of-two Justin Skrebowski to death in the town's Poundland discount store in December last year.

Trevor Joyce, of Franklyn Close, was sentenced to life in prison with a minimum of nine years at the Old Bailey in London on Monday for the manslaughter of the 61-year-old Skrebowski with diminished responsibility.

Joyce admitted to the killing at Oxford Crown Court last month, as well as two counts of making threats to kill, one count of assault causing actual bodily harm and one count of threatening others with offensive weapons.

Investigating officer, Det Insp Stuart Blaik, of the Major Crime unit, said: "Whilst this will never compensate for the loss of Justin, it will hopefully offer some comfort to Justin's widow

By Alex Ballinger

Gulsen and the Skrebowski family. This was a random attack on Justin, an innocent member of the public in Abingdon town centre whilst he was shopping on his wife's birthday.

"This callous incident has had a profound effect on the family in so many ways.

"I would like to thank the family for their support throughout the investigation, as well as the members of the public who provided witness statements and assisted police officers with the arrest of Joyce shortly after the incident. They have shown great courage in horrific circumstances.

"On behalf of Thames Valley Police, I would like to offer my condolences to Gulsen and the Skrebowski family, our thoughts remain with them at this incredibly difficult and sad time."

Mr Skrebowski, an art dealer of Sunnymead, Oxford, had been buying balloons for his children on December 7, 2015 - his wife Gulsen's 39th birthday.

Diminished responsibility means Joyce admits the offence but that his mental functions were diminished or impaired.

Joyce entered the Poundland store in Bury Street at about 11.20am and took a knife from the shelf. He stabbed Mr Skrebowski in the lower back. After fleeing down Bury Street, Joyce was wrestled to the ground by an off-duty police officer.

Military to help demolish plant building

MILITARY personnel and equipment are to be called in to Didcot Power Station to help recover three men missing in wreckage since the collapse of a building in February.

The military aid will be used with other agencies including police and demolition experts to bring down the remaining half of the 10-storey, 300m-long building still standing.

Police announced just after 1pm yesterday that the Home Office and Ministry of Defence had approved the deployment of the military to help in the recovery of Ken Cresswell, 57, and John Shaw, 61, both of Rotherham, and Christopher Huxtable, 34, of Swansea, who are still missing in the rubble.

Site owner RWE Npower announced last month that search efforts would be suspended because the remaining part of the boiler house was too unstable for the contractors to get any nearer than 50 metres.

Part of the boiler house of Didcot A Power Station collapsed on February 23, and the body of 53-year-old Mick Collings, of North Yorkshire, was found the same day.

A rescue mission to search the debris for the missing three men started 22 days after the collapse due to fears the rest of the building could fall.

A statement from Thames Valley Police said: "The Home Office and Ministry of Defence (MOD) have approved the development of military aid to support the ongoing multi-agency recovery operation following the partial collapse of the boiler house at Didcot A Power Station.

"This support has been provided following a request by the multi-agency strategic co-ordination group in line with Military Aid to Civil Authority Principles.

"Our absolute priority remains the recovery of the missing men so they can be returned to their families and to understand what caused this tragic incident.

"Specialist officers from TVP continue to support the families and are providing them with daily updates on the progress of this work."

The force said the military would work with police, RWE, contractors Brown and Mason, and demolition specialists Alford Technologies to bring down the rest of the structure "safely."

Shoplifters jailed

HENLEY: Two men who shoplifted bottles of alcohol from a shop in Henley Market Place have been jailed.

Robert Dee, 38, of Christchurch Road, Reading, and Tomasz Marcinkowksi, 31, of Beecham Road, Reading, stole the alcohol from Wine Rack on May 16 and May 21.

Dee was sentenced to 14 weeks in prison and Marcinkowski was jailed for 20 weeks at Oxford Magistrates' Court on May 31.

They were also ordered to pay a £115 victim surcharge each.

Investigating officer PC Charlotte Owen, based at Henley Police Station, said: "I am pleased with the sentences handed out to Dee and Marcinkowski.

"This sends a clear message that shoplifting will not be tolerated, and that offenders will be prosecuted, and could face custodial sentences."

They were charged with theft from a shop on May 22.

Both pleaded guilty to the charges on May 31.

Immigration arrest by the A40

OXFORD: A woman has been detained on suspicion of immigration offences after reports someone was found in the back of a lorry in a layby on the A40 between Oxford and Wheatley.

Police were called to the scene at Forest Hill at 10.04am yesterday where the woman was detained.

Thames Valley Police spokesman Lucy Billen said: "She was taken to custody and will be subsequently transferred to the relevant authorities."

Volunteers aim to help those with special needs

Charity stages sport fun

OXFORD-BASED charity KEEN is set to hold its annual celebration with its own Olympics-style event on Saturday, June 18.

The charity, which offers sporting and recreational activities to children with special needs, will hold a series of sporting events and hand out medals and certificates.

More than 200 volunteers, many of whom are students at the city's universities where the charity began in 1988, will also be rewarded for their participation throughout the year.

Session co-ordinator Paul Harding said: "At the end of each year we celebrate everyone's participation in the sessions throughout the year.

"The aim of the event is to increase participation in the charity rather than promoting sporting success.

"The charity has been expanding year on year to cater from the ages of four upwards and cover sports and increasingly other social activities like drama.

"This year we've also managed to hire more staff to grow the charity, which means we've been able to start running our adult-only sessions for the first time this year, and we've run around a hundred sessions in total."

The event will take place at New College recreation ground and will be attended by Oxford East MP Andrew Smith who will present the medals.

By Dominic Thomas

This year's event has been funded by donations including £700 from city councillor Tom Hayes, who said, "I've always cared a huge amount about the ways in which society disables people with impairments.

"It's not just that these young people build relationships with each other and the KEEN volunteers, it's that their parents and guardians develop a support network and friendship. For so many families who'd otherwise find it financially tough, KEEN has been a lifeline.

"And for the students living in my ward who volunteer, they realise the value of volunteering and develop lifelong interests in giving back to their communities."

Fundraising efforts for next year's event are already up and running at https://localgiving.org/appeal/keenolymp17

Developers' delight as shops take units

• From front page

The development is being run by the Westgate Oxford Alliance, a partnership formed by Land Securities and The Crown Estate.

Westgate Oxford Alliance leasing director Naomi Howard said: "We are thrilled so many great brands are already committed to Westgate Oxford and that we are delivering such an impressive premium line-up.

"With less than 18 months to go, we've secured more pre-lets at this stage in development than any other major UK shopping centre so far this decade.

"This demand is testament to Westgate's unique offering: a large, affluent catchment and an as yet unfulfilled retail potential set in the heart of a world-class city."

The news was welcomed by tourist board Experience Oxfordshire's head of marketing and development, Martin Walker, who said: "We're excited to hear about the latest additions to join the Westgate redevelopment."

Shops previously announced as coming include Superdry, Next, Schuh and River Island.

Oxfordshire Chamber of Commerce president Peter Smith said: "The announcement of the retailers taking space in the Westgate Centre demonstrates the potential in the city"

Raring to throw!

By Dominic Thomas

FOUR lucky people have been selected for the royal bun-throwing ceremony in Abingdon on Saturday to celebrate the Queen's 90th birthday.

They were chosen for the traditional event - which will see 4,500 buns thrown from the roof of County Hall - at the Bun Throwing World Championships held at Abingdon Vale Cricket Club last weekend.

Winner of the men's competition Duncan Au threw a whopping 156ft 4in, while Christiane Van Coliie took home the senior women's trophy with a throw of 87ft 6in. The contest's junior winners were Josh Hermon and Rebecca Rogers.

A pupil at John Mason School Josh, 17, from Abingdon, said: "It was a lot of fun. When I threw it, it went quite far, but I didn't think I'd win because my throw was quite early on, but nobody managed to beat it!

"The only time I've been involved before is with the cadets carrying all of the buns up the stairs, so I'm looking forward to taking part this year."

Leader of Abingdon Town Council Mike Badcock said of Monday's Championships: "It was a great bit of fun and the weather was blowing the buns all over the place!

"The only thing we can't control on Saturday is the weather! Last year, we had some awful rain but the streets were still packed - nothing will stop the bun throwing!"

Abingdon Town Band and the Abingdon Traditional Morris Dancers will both perform ahead of Abingdon Town Council's procession to County Hall for verses of Happy Birthday and the National Anthem at 6.30pm.

Roads in the town centre will close at 5pm ahead of the ceremony. The first of the buns will be thrown at 7pm, with bun-catchers advised to arrive well ahead of the start time.

Organiser Steve Rich also said: "It's a fantastic event to have so many people tightly packed in the square catching buns with the church bells ringing out at the same time. It's a great atmosphere."

The buns are being donated by sponsors Tesco. The Vale of White Horse District Council is also supporting the event with a grant from its fund for the Queen's 90th Birthday celebrations.

Flats plan put in for ex-store site

• Designs for the old Waitrose site in St Martin's Street

A PLANNING application to demolish Wallingford's derelict former Waitrose supermarket and build retirement flats and two shops was filed with South Oxfordshire District Council on Friday.

Wallingford-based Beechcroft Developments submitted the plans for 13 to 16 St Martin's Street following a public consultation in March.

The building has been empty for 11 years since Waitrose moved to its current base about 150m down the road to the junction with High Street.

The application states the plans aim to "end a long period of neglect and uncertainty for this important site in and off St Martin's Street".

It adds: "To the front of the application site an altogether more modest and intimate mass and scale are called for to reflect the narrowness of streetscape, and repair some of the design damage of less perceptive times."

The proposal includes one one-bed and 21 two-bed flats for over-55s on the first, second and third floors, and two ground-floor retail units.

A covered car park would also have 22 parking spaces for the flats and one each for the retail units.

A raised garden and terrace would also be built on the first floor.

During a consultation at the Regal Centre on March 11, residents and town councillors backed plans to revive the site. However, some raised concerns about traffic and overlooking.

A target decision date for council officers to decide whether to recommend the plans be approved or rejected has been set as September 2.

Friends air sadness about Ali's passing

By Alex Ballinger

CLOSE friends from Abingdon of legendary boxer Muhammad Ali have paid emotional tributes to The Greatest after his death last Friday, aged 74.

Bare-knuckle boxing champion Paddy Monaghan befriended Ali in the 1960s and The People's Champion visited the town more than 20 times before his death.

Now Mr Monaghan's daughter Belinda has told of her heartache at the loss of her dad's close friend.

• The late, great Muhammad Ali at a film premier in 2004

Miss Monaghan, who first met Ali when she was 12 months old, said: "When I found out, I just burst into tears. We had a feeling it was coming. My family was updated every other hour.

"It was a major shock. It was very sad. He was a close friend."

Ali first met Mr Monaghan when the Abingdon resident launched a petition to have the champion's boxing licence reinstated after he was banned from the sport for three years for refusing to be drafted into the US army during the Vietnam War.

Mr Monaghan's petition sparked an ongoing friendship that lasted until Ali's death last weekend. He had been suffering from a respiratory illness, complicated by his long battle with Parkinson's disease.

Miss Monaghan, a full-time mother of four children, said: "My dad has taken it very hard. The whole world has.

"[Ali] was really fun. Always joking about. Even today I woke up and there were still tears. He was amazing."

Mr Monaghan, 73, now lives in Sutton Courtenay.

In 2013, he published a book called Street Fighting Man, which featured a heartfelt foreword from the former three-time world heavyweight champion.

Ali, who was born Cassius Clay, said: "Friendship is a word I do not use lightly. Paddy Monaghan and I have been friends since the early 1960s.

"Not only is Paddy my good friend, he is my main man over there in Great Britain. From this man, from that little town in England, came the title 'The People's Champ.'"

Ali was born in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1942 and went on to become one of the most recognisable men in the world.

Rob Southey lived in Saxton Road, Abingdon in 1974 when Ali first visited the town.

The 54-year-old said: "It was brilliant. Everyone was there.

"Everyone loved him.

"He's always been the best boxer in the whole world. No-one moved like Ali."

Ali died in hospital in Phoenix, Arizona, and funeral will be held in Louisville tomorrow.

Police launch campaign on drink-driving

THAMES Valley Police have launched their summer campaign to tackle drink-and drug-driving in the region.

The campaign started on Monday, and will run throughout June and July to coincide with the Euro 2016 championships.

It comes after 325 people were arrested across the Thames Valley in the force's campaign over the Christmas period.

Sgt Chris Appleby, from the Roads Policing Department, said: "Driving after drinking is a major cause of death and injury on our roads.

"Alcohol impairs many of the functions necessary for safe driving and the risk of death or injury rapidly increases with alcohol consumption, so it's not worth the risk."

Sgt Appleby added: "This campaign will draw drivers' attention to the risks posed by using drink or drugs while in control of a vehicle and the serious penalties which they will face when they are caught."

Drink or drug drivers can be fined up to £5,000, receive a prison sentence of up to six months and a mandatory disqualification of 12 months, as well as three to 11 points on their licence.

Bicester launches a bid to become healthy new town

• A new low-emission, hail-and-ride bus been launched in Bicester

BICESTER is hoping to get a new title to add to its list of accolades – after it was shortlisted as a healthy town.

Work has started to create the country's first eco town, largest self-build estate and the Bicester Garden Town designation.

Now Cherwell District Council is hoping Bicester will join NHS England's Healthy New Town Programme (HNT).

The idea is to create housing estates and infrastructure to promote healthy lifestyles, such as better cycle and walkways and multi-activity open space.

By Samantha McGregor

The NHS programme will look at how technology can play a role in healthcare as well as working with community groups, councils and developers.

This week Cherwell's executive agreed £20,000 of funding for the project.

Council leader Barry Wood said: "The cutting-edge Eco Town at North West Bicester has been designed to catalyse healthy living, with high levels of green space and safe, integrated walking and cycling paths.

"Participating in the HNT Programme is a way of future-proofing Bicester's new communities against the challenges the 21st Century will pose to human health, whether in terms of obesity, dementia or digital lifestyles. We can make Bicester a national leader in the delivery of integrated healthy living."

The report said Bicester was set to double in size, with 13,000 homes set to be built over the next 30 years.

It came as Grayline Coaches yesterday launched a new low-emission bus service between, Elmsbrook, in North West Bicester, built by A2Dominion, to the town centre and Bicester Village Station.

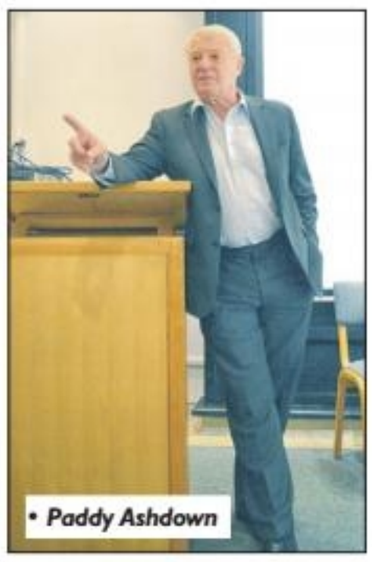
It will be free for the first six weeks to encourage people to ditch their cars, and will operate from 6.30am to 7.30pm Monday to Friday, and 8am to 6pm on Saturdays.

Because the route is registered with the Traffic Commissioners as a hail-and-ride service, it can stop to pick up passengers or drop them off anywhere along the route.

Students urged to use vote

FORMER Liberal Democrat leader Paddy Ashdown spoke to students at Wadham College, Oxford, on Monday night, urging them to register for the EU referendum.

The former Marines officer called the debate 'the fight of a generation' which was 'far from over' in his address to the Oxford University's Liberal Democrat Society.



• Paddy Ashdown

Speaking of his experiences in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Ashdown also lauded the EU as the 'greatest ever peace-keeping organisation', and claimed that a Brexit would be 'an act of historic folly'.

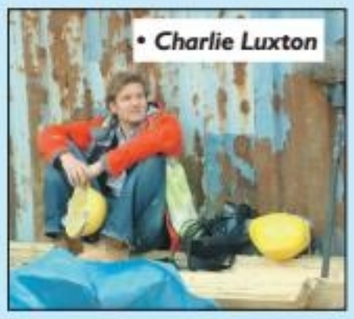
"If you do back Brexit then who are you going to believe about the outcome – Boris Johnson pretending to lead some anti-establishment revolt, or every one of the experts who forecasts that Britain will suffer grievously if we leave the EU?

"That's not scaremongering, it is fact. They cannot all be wrong. It's gambling with the future of our country."

He also mocked the Leave campaign's sovereignty argument, calling it an 'illusionary sense of sovereignty'.

Speaking on the day Lib Dem leader Tim Farron spoke alongside other Remain leaders, Mr Ashdown said: "I think it should be a cross party issue, and I like to see politicians working together."

Self-build show



• Charlie Luxton

PEOPLE interested in building their own home or buying a plot of land at the new Graven Hill scheme at Bicester can go along to the first Oxfordshire Build it Live show.

On June 11 and 12, from 9.30am to 5pm, the exhibition will be at Bicester Heritage, Buckingham Road, with more than 100 stands and seminars.

Part of the show will be dedicated to the Graven Hill Village Development where architectural designer and TV presenter Charlie Luxton will be making a guest appearance.

Ticket holders will also have a chance to tour the Graven Hill development site, which has planning approval for 1,900 self-build homes. Buses will leave every hour.

Oxfordshire Guardian readers can take advantage of a buy-one-get-one-free offer on tickets by using the code OXG16 when viewing the website: builditlive.co.uk

Four people arrested after Co-op store raids

By Alex Ballinger

THREE people from Didcot and a fourth with no fixed address have been arrested after two Co-op stores were robbed by armed suspects over the weekend.

The first incident happened last Friday night when a man entered the shop in the Ladygrove Local Centre in Mersey Way, Didcot, wielding what appeared to be a gun.

He threatened staff and demanded money and tobacco at about 8.30pm before placing the items in a shopping bag and leaving the store.

The second incident happened at about 7.35pm on Sunday when a man entered the Co-op in Besselsleigh Road, Wootton, carrying a hammer.

He went behind the till and took tobacco, before telling staff to open the till and taking cash.

Two women, aged 37 and 28, both from Didcot, were arrested on Sunday on suspicion of robbery and have been bailed until July 18. A 36-year-old man from Didcot was also arrested on Sunday on suspicion of robbery and has been bailed until the same date.

Police also arrested a 31-year-old man, of no fixed address, on Monday. He was in police custody as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to press.

Speaking about the Wootton robbery, Detective Inspector Larry Johnson, said: "It was fortunate that nobody was hurt during the incident.

"However, it was still very distressing for the staff in the shop at the time.

"It took place during the early evening and so there would have been lots of people around and we would like to hear from anyone who saw anything in connection with the incident."

The offender ran out of the shop to a grey Vauxhall Zafira, parked near the community centre. He was then driven by a female driver towards Abingdon.

Police have described the offender as being a white man, between 5ft 8ins and 6ft tall.

He was wearing a white decorator's suit with the hood pulled up, a paint mask and black sunglasses.

The officer investigating the Didcot incident, Detective Constable Arran Cliff, said: "Fortunately no-one was hurt during the incident, however it was a frightening experience for those who were in the store.

"People in the community may notice an increased presence of officers in the area."

The Didcot offender is described as being white, wearing a beanie-style hat, sunglasses and navy-coloured clothing.

Police said on Monday a 27-year-old man also arrested on Sunday has been released without any further action.

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101.

Woman jailed for two thefts

A 28-YEAR-OLD Banbury woman has been jailed for nine months after stealing cash from two people who tried to help her.

Hayley Stout, of Boxhedge Road West, Banbury, earlier admitted two counts of theft at Oxford Crown Court. She was sentenced at Reading Crown Court on Thursday, May 26.

Police said the first incident took place in Orchard Way, Banbury, in October 2015. Stout approached an elderly man near his home and said she was feeling unwell and wanted a glass of water.

He allowed her into his home and while alone she stole a "large amount of cash".

The following month between midnight and 1am, Stout approached a 51-year-old man outside a shop in the town centre and asked for a cigarette.

Stout befriended him and accepted the offer of a warm drink in his canal boat. However, once inside, she stole his wallet while he was making a drink and then fled.

Det Con Darren Pomroy said: "This case is a reminder to us all about the dangers of letting strangers into our properties. If the person is unknown then residents should have no reservations on shutting/ locking the door on strangers."

Technicolour fun gives boost to city's hospice

ALMOST 1,000 people helped paint Oxford a veritable rainbow of colours on Saturday to raise money for a children and young person's hospice in the city.

The Rainbow Run, which is now in its third year, saw 895 people of all ages pelted with colourful powder paint in aid of Helen and Douglas House in Magdalen Road.

By Alex Ballinger

Taking part this year was the face of the Rainbow Run 2016, Jack Smith, of Bampton.

The 12-year-old has cerebral palsy and epilepsy, and visits the hospice for respite care.

Jack's mum Jane said: "It was absolutely wonderful. This is our way of giving something back, which is important to us. It's really good fun.

"For Jack, Helen House is somewhere he can go and do something a bit different. For us, as his parents, it is knowing that at the end of the day, there is somewhere we can go, someone who can take over, and that is quite big actually because there is no-one else."

The run, which was held at Cutteslowe Park, has raised more than £23,000 since it was launched - and money from this year's event is still pouring in.

A 28-strong 'Team Thomas' took park in memory of youngster Thomas Laurie, of Bicester, who died at the hospice in 2014, aged just nine.

Thomas suffered from a rare condition called Cockayne Syndrom, which causes premature ageing.

His mum Cath said: "We know how important it is for families still going through tough times.

"It's been two years since he died and we are still very much supported by Helen and Douglas House."

• The event has raised over £23,000 so far

• This year was the third rainbow run

At Tall Trees, we provide personalised dementia care – as well as nursing and residential care – for elderly people in a safe and friendly home.

The entire team working at Tall Trees receives our unique dementia training, 'Living in My World', so that they have an understanding of the condition and how to make a positive impact on the people in our care living with dementia. We are part of Caring Homes, the only care organisation in the UK to be awarded City & Guilds accreditation - a globally recognised benchmark of quality for in-house training. We believe that everyone, irrespective of their position within the home, should possess this knowledge as everyone will have a moment of connection with a resident.

Our approach is focused on meeting people's individual requirements with dignity and respect. Surrounding everyone with familiarity, security and stimulation, we make our residents' experience with us as fulfilling as it can be.

Home Manager, Michelle Little

Tall Trees Home Manager, Michelle Little, says: "I firmly believe in giving each resident person-centred care so that their life with us has stimulation and purpose. We speak to their families at length and ask about what they used to enjoy, what they did for a living, and a myriad other questions. We then use this knowledge as a trigger point to connect and engage with each person, from singing or gardening together to a hand massage."

Living in My World assists us to communicate more effectively with people living with dementia, using body language as well as carefully-chosen words to aid our residents' understanding. Building relationships with residents, learning about their lives and empathising with them means we can help to ease their frustrations. In turn, we support family members to sustain an ongoing positive relationship with their loved one.

Police reveal shocking video after man jailed for Drayton ram-raid

• A shot of Healey's car from the police footage

AN Oxford man has been jailed for almost three years after he ram-raided a village post office and led police on a 15-mile chase earlier this month.

Stuart Healey, of Botley Road, was sentenced to two years and 10 months in prison at Oxford Crown Court last Tuesday for burglary and driving offences.

Police released a shocking video of the chase online, which showed Healey speeding through Abingdon and driving along the wrong side of a dual carriageway near Witney.

At about 3am on May 5, Healey smashed his car into the front of a post office in Drayton Road, Drayton, causing major damage.

The 35-year-old stole a small amount of alcohol from the shop and drove away from the scene, but was pursued by police before being arrested in Ducklington. Thames Valley Police released the video of the chase on Friday.

By Alex Ballinger

Investigating officer, PC Mark Allmond, said: "Healey's actions were incredibly dangerous and it is fortunate that no-one was injured as a result of his thoughtless and reckless behaviour.

"A number of roads policing officers were involved in the pursuit of Healey and I would like to thank them for their efforts to stop Healey before he hurt himself or an innocent member of the public."

• Stuart Healey

Healey pleaded guilty to one count of burglary, one count of drink-driving, one count of dangerous driving and one count of assaulting a police officer. He was also banned from driving for two years.

Home on offer

BANBURY: Families can get their foot on the housing ladder for a deposit of just £6,250.

As part of Cherwell District Council's Build! project which regenerates redundant sites to provide affordable housing, it has transformed land in Causeway, Banbury, into a detached family home.

The three-bedroom house is available to purchase on a shared ownership basis of 50 per cent. Anyone interested need to be registered with website helptobuysouth.co.uk

Grants to improve river

• New funding to improve the River Cherwell is welcomed

THE second phase of a project to improve the River Cherwell will start this summer thanks to grants of more than £190,000.

The Wild Banbury project will focus on Spiceball Park and the Hanwell Brook wetland. Groups can get involved by creating habitats for wildlife by digging out ponds, clearing scrub and planting flowers.

Among the grants was £93,300 from the Heritage Lottery Fund, £64,000 from Banbury Town Council, £4,000 from Cherwell District Council and £27,295 from Grundon.

Over the past 18 months, the Cherwell has been relandscaped with new banks planted with native wild flowers, bridges and benches.

Neil Clennell, Berkshire, Buckinghamshire and Oxfordshire Wildlife Trust's director of conservation and education in Oxfordshire, said: "Spiceball Park, which is owned by Banbury Town Council, is a well-used amenity, but until we started work last autumn the river was almost hidden from people walking and cycling.

"Improving the wildlife habitats through Spiceball Park is increasing the river's biodiversity, and many more people are watching wildlife from the riverside walk."

Councillor Colin Clarke, chairman of the town council's general services committee said: "This is the first phase of the project, funded by a £31,000 grant from the Environment Agency, started last autumn.

"Work included electro-fishing on the river, clearing away vegetation and trees overshadowing the river and creating and planting up shallow river banks."

Sports club plan wins approval

By Samantha McGregor

PLANS to demolish and rebuild Thame Cricket Club's pavilion have been given the green light.

A joint planning application by Thame Town Cricket Club and Thame Town Council has been approved by South Oxfordshire District Council.

The pavilion will be demolished and replaced by a new "fit for purpose" building with modern facilities.

The two-storey clubhouse will have a kitchen, bar and function room on both floors, storage rooms, an office, changing rooms and a viewing terrace.

The footprint of the building would be slightly bigger than the current one and will have stone and timber cladding to ensure it is in keeping with neighbouring properties.

A net area and service yard are included in the proposal, and the car park would be redesigned to provide 45 spaces and 20 cycle spaces.

The club, which has more than 200 members, moved to the Church Meadow site in 1975 and the clubhouse was created out of both agricultural land and derelict farm buildings.

Work is expected to take place in winter of 2017 ready for the start of the 2018 cricket season.

Thame Town Council is funding the development to the tune of £120,000 and is seeking a further £150,000 from cash allocated to sports provision in the town by South Oxfordshire District Council.

Matt Swain, club vice-chairman, said "We are delighted with the positive response from SODC and can't thank Thame Town Council and Holland & Green enough for their support to help us get this project off the ground.

"It will make a huge difference, not just to the members of the cricket, hockey and netball clubs but the broader community of Thame, who will be able to enjoy the facility in the heart of town at one of the most idyllic settings that Oxfordshire has to offer.

"We are a charitable organisation run by volunteers who have the club's best interest at heart in everything we do.

"We have worked really hard over the last few years to develop the club and make it something that more and more people can enjoy."

• Matt Swain, the club's vice-chairman in action

Queen's concert

BICESTER: A free concert to mark the Queen's 90th will be held at Bicester Avenue, on Saturday, June 11, from 6pm.

People can bring a picnic and enjoy tunes from the 1950s to the 2000s performed by The Brilltones & Bustin'Loose.

A free shuttle bus will run from Manorsfield Road bus station to the garden centre every 15 minutes from 5.45pm with the last bus at 11pm.

The following day Bicester's Big Lunch takes place from midday.

Tables and chairs will line Sheep Street for people to bring a picnic and enjoy lunch. There will also be stalls and live music.

Signs spark village upset

VILLAGERS want to get the message out that despite signs to the contrary Launton fete will be taking place this weekend.

Overnight residents awoke to find yellow signs put up announcing the road through the village would be closed for one day on Saturday, June 11.

The fete, coinciding with the Queen's 90th Birthday celebrations, has been planned for months.

So Launton Parish Council chairman Simon Turner quickly got on the phone to Oxfordshire County Council to find out what was going on.

He said: "I contacted Oxfordshire County Council's highways department immediately, but they initially denied all responsibility for the closure. I had to email them photographs of the signs before they took it seriously.

"Closing the main road through a village on the Queen's official 90th birthday wasn't a very clever decision, especially as there are many village fetes and other celebrations on that weekend."

Mr Turner said he was able to "persuade the powers that be" that closing the road would interfere with people from outside the village getting to the fete.

But he is concerned because the signs are still there.

The fete starts at 1pm at Launton Playing fields, off Bicester Road, and there are a host of activities taking place including games, stalls and performances by members of the Launton Players and schoolchildren.

Boat owners warned of need for fire safety

OXFORDSHIRE'S fire fighters have issued a warning to the county's boat owners about fire prevention as part of Boat Safety Week last week.

The fire service said 30 boaters had been killed in the last 30 years by fires and another 30 had lost their lives to carbon monoxide poisoning.

Boat Safety Week ran from last Monday until Sunday.

Station manager for Oxfordshire County Council Fire and Rescue Service, Chris Barber, said: "The message, timed for the start of the boating season, is that owners should understand the risks, make regular, basic checks, and follow their engine and appliance operating guidelines as the essential steps to deal with the fire and carbon monoxide threat."

Vehicle research

OXON: A technology company in Oxfordshire has been granted £233,000 to make vehicles drive more efficiently in the future to cut carbon dioxide emissions.

The money will fund a team of scientists from Oxford Advanced Surfaces, based at Begbroke Science Park in Yarnton, to find out how next-generation vehicles can be made lighter with more advanced materials.

It was awarded the grant by Innovate UK, a Government-affiliated body tasked with discovering science and technology innovations to grow the UK economy.

Oxford Advanced Surfaces will be conducting a feasibility study with the University of Manchester to develop new surface treatments that can be applied to recycled carbon fibre to produce new lightweight composites for use in the automotive industry.

House closed

DIDCOT: Police have banned anyone from entering a Didcot home for three months after complaints were raised about it being used for criminal activity.

The allegations include the house in Abbot Road having been used for drug supply and other crimes.

Thames Valley Police was granted a closure order at Oxford Magistrates' Court last Thursday, June 2.

The order includes the occupants and was issued by the court under the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014. Inspector Mark Harling, Thames Valley Police's neighbourhood policing team, said: "This address was the subject of numerous complaints. This closure notice will provide some well needed respite for residents in the immediate area."

Former mayor defends Hitler comments at Oxford Union

By Alex Ballinger

THE former Mayor of London and prominent Labour Party figure Ken Livingstone defended comments he made about Hitler and Zionism while speaking at the Oxford Union last week.

Mr Livingstone was suspended from the Labour Party amid a spate of high-profile incidents of alleged anti-Semitism in the party, after he said Adolf Hitler had supported Zionism.

Speaking at the famous debating chamber in Oxford last Wednesday, the 70-year-old compared his comments to saying "1+1=2".

He said: "This whole anti-Semitism thing is blown out of proportion to smear Jeremy Corbyn.

"I've been in the Labour Party for 47 years, I can't remember an anti-Semitic comment in the Labour Party.

"Criticising a government is not the same as anti-Semitism, these issues should not be conflated."

Mr Livingstone was suspended from the party after he commented on the suspension of Labour MP Naz Shah for a Facebook post she made before she was elected in 2015, in which she said Israeli Jewish people should be resettled in the United States.

In an interview with BBC Radio London, Mr Livingstone said: "There's been a very well-orchestrated campaign by the Israel lobby to smear anybody who criticises Israeli policy as anti-Semitic.

"When Hitler won his election in 1932 his policy then was that Jews should be moved to Israel. He was supporting Zionism before he went mad and ended up killing six million Jews."

His comments led to calls for him to be suspended by the party, and led to conflict with fellow Labour MP John Mann.

Mr Livingstone served as MP for Brent East in London between 1987 and 2001 and as Mayor of London from 2000 to 2008.

Speaking about the leader of the Labour Party Jeremy Corbyn, Mr Livingstone said: "You won't have read much about Jeremy Corbyn's economic policy as the media is more interested in his clothes.

"[He] will connect with the people. We just need to focus on the economy. As a leader, if you don't sort out your economy, you'll fall pretty fast."

Purse thief suspect

BANBURY: Police have released CCTV footage of a man who is suspected of stealing an elderly woman's purse.

The woman believes her purse was stolen from her handbag as she walked from McColls, in High Street, towards Castle Quay, between 10.40am and 11am, on Saturday, May 28.

Her purse contained cash and a debit card which the thief attempted to use minutes later at the cashpoint at Barclays Bank.

PC Robert Kelly said: "The victim has been left feeling very shaken and vulnerable since the incident so it is vital we are able to get some answers."

Anyone with information should contact police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Buses set to stop

THAME: Four routes run by Vale Travel bus services in Thame are expected to be stopped from July 20.

The operator has told Thame Town Council is cannot afford to run the 120/121/123 and 124 services without a subsidy.

The move comes after Oxfordshire County Council cut bus subsidies across the county. The Carousel Link 40 and Arriva 280 bus services will continue unchanged.

Work on college's £13.5m library gets under way

• An artist's impression of the new library

WORK is under way on a new £13.5 million library and study centre at St John's College in Oxford.

The facility in St Giles is being built by Wantage-based developers Stepnell and is set to be finished at the end of next year.

British artist Susanna Heron will create an engraving in the stonework of the study centre.

Principal bursar at the college, Professor Andrew Parker, said: "The college is delighted to be working with this experienced team on this development.

"A group of fellows from St John's visited the works at Madgalen in the closing phases of that project.

"We were very impressed with what we saw and we are sure that we will see the same high standards at St John's."

Stepnell's worked on the refurbishment and extension of the New Library at Magdalen College which was completed last year.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Swindon College is the largest provider of Higher Education in Swindon, with a range of courses at Degree Level.

At Swindon College more students are seeing the benefits of studying at a local college that fits in with their work and family commitments.

As well as lower fees, you could benefit from smaller class sizes with dedicated tutors, allowing more individual support. We have knowledgeable library staff who can help with researching and referencing and a dedicated Higher Education Student Centre, with study spaces and a social area.

All of our programmes are designed with employment in mind and link directly back to the workplace. On successful completion of your course, you'll have the opportunity to don a gown and mortar board for the official Graduation Ceremony.

The course is studied full time over one academic year and includes subjects necessary for successful completion of the Diploma and entry to higher level study.

If you have not yet enrolled on a course for September - it's not too late to apply!

Animals in need day

FOR the first time ever, this year, Sunshine Cat Rescue will host an animals in need day at Shipton -under -Wychwood on the 16th July. The idea is to have as many animal charity's as possible together in one place and make it a fun family day for everyone as well as making money to help needy animals.

The day will include Crocodiles of the world, a fun dog show, lots of stalls, refreshments, face painting, and a chance to meet Charlie the cat our animals in need mascot.

This has long been a dream of mine says Lou Tyack spokesperson for Sunshine Cat Rescue, all rescues work so hard every year to help as many animals as possible and we still know we don't reach them all. My idea is to get together and see if we can help each other,by swopping ideas and helping out with space to take animals in for each other.

We would like to make a day every year for animals in need but first we need to see how this one goes!

So come along and enjoy the day and help all the animals in need.

A trip to the Vet!

TOP cat transportation tips from the Oxford Cat Clinic team

• Choose a carrier that is strong and secure, big enough for your cat to lie comfortably, but not fall about inside, not too big that they feel insecure. A cat loose in the car is illegal and liable to escape. Know your carrier – a struggling cat and an instruction manual is not good!

• One carrier one cat! Even the best of friends fall out if stressed.

• Top loading carriers are easier to use. A removable top section allows your cat to sit in the familiar bottom half during the vet examination.

• A plastic or wire carrier is easier to clean should your cat have a toileting mishap! Put something absorbent at the bottom, just in case

• Young cats - have the carrier out in plain view as a place to sleep, have treats etc. Older cats associate carriers with bad experiences. Don't keep it hidden away, its sudden appearance can trigger anxiety and panic.

• Spray a calming pheromone such as "Feliway" into the carrier 15 minutes before you put the cat in. Anti- nausea tablets (supplied by your vet) can be given a few hours before travelling if your cat suffers from travel sickness.

• Don't feed your cat before travelling.

• Use a familiar smelling towel to wrap your scaredy cat in, quickly place both the cat and the towel in the carrier.

• Cover the carrier. Anchor the carrier in the car with seatbelt. Drive steadily. Radio off. Watch the weather! Never leave your cat unattended in a car. • Home visits – if travelling is just too stressful ask your vet about a home visit

REMEMBER!

Cats read minds… they detect our tension and anxiety!

Leave plenty of time, remain calm!

Your first attempt is your best chance.

Roll along to festival

ONE of the world's leading Rolling Stones tribute bands will be headlining at Watlington's very own Beacon Festival.

Not The Rolling Stones will be taking to the stage at the music extravaganza at Watlington Hill Farm on Saturday,

By James Richings

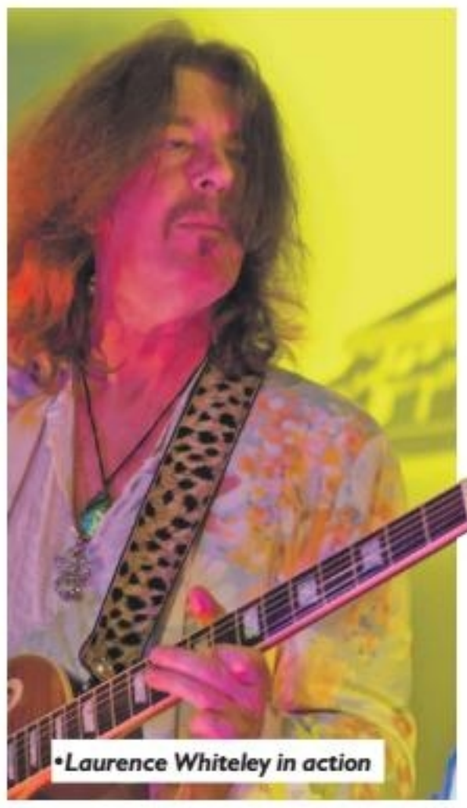
June 17, and Sunday, June 18, along with many other groups performing classic and original numbers.

For Not The Rolling Stones member Laurence Whiteley, who portrays Mick Taylor in the band, the chance to headline at one of Oxfordshire's many festivals was an opportunity too good to turn down.

"A performance is always better when the audience enjoy and appreciate what we are doing," Laurence told the Oxfordshire Guardian. "We feed off the energy they generate and it's actually easier to play better when there's a great atmosphere and the crowd are enjoying what we do.

"We love and appreciate what The Stones do and we love making those songs come alive for an audience, and hopefully create the illusion of the real thing, but we are, after all, called NOT the Rolling Stones!



•Laurence Whiteley in action

The four friends have been together for nearly a decade and will perform on the Saturday, with the group showcasing tunes such as 'Not Fade Away', 'I Can't Get No (Satisfaction) and, 'Jumping Jack Flash' at the fourth Beacon Festival.

The band's appearance at the festival is just one of many they will be making throughout the year.

After their gig in Oxfordshire, the four friends will then move on to play in Hull, Wiltshire, Cannock and France, among others.

And even if Laurence and the gang are not performing their own tracks on the night, they still receive a warm reception worthy of an established band.

"All we can do is make it the best it can be and, of course, we hope that people appreciate it and want to see the band," Laurence said.

"For me, success is just a by-product of being driven to do something well that you are passionate about."

He added: "The most fun we had was probably playing for a private (and rather wealthy) client in Naples who flew us all out there, provided wonderful food, all our musical instruments, an amazing night of playing and partying with the rich and beautiful people of Naples - and paid us for the pleasure!

"Not bad, not bad at all."

Carlene plays church gig

WHEN your stepfather is country music legend Johnny Cash, you grab his advice with both hands.

And that's exactly what singer-songwriter Carlene Carter did as she became one of the best in the music business.

Carlene is gearing up for a gig at St Barnabas Church in Jericho, Oxford, on Friday, June 10.

The 60-year-old will be performing tracks from her latest album, 'Carter Girl' and telling stories about being a member of the famous Carter family that has produced some of the finest American musicians dating back to the 1800s.

The family has produced such stars as June, Sara and A P Carter.

And Carlene insisted that being a singer-songwriter was the only job she ever wanted.

"All my life, I wanted to grow up and be a 'Carter Girl'", she told the Oxfordshire Guardian. "I love music.

"I studied it, fell in love with song writing and once I started writing there was nothing else for me.

Born to A P and June Carter (June would later change her name to June Carter Cash after she married Johnny Cash in 1968), Carlene went on to become a popular performer on the country music circuit. She has released 10 albums and 27 singles as well as touring worldwide with musicians such as John Mellencamp.

By James Richings

Carlene revealed to the Guardian that it was a little piece of advice she received when she first started her music career that inspired her to record her latest album.

"I was told at a very young age that some day it would be my responsibility to carry on the music of my family, so I always intended to make this album and it finally felt like the right time to do it," Carlene said.

"Also, Johnny Cash was loving, kind, generous of spirit and very wise.

"He was the best and I loved him so very much!

"I loved singing, 'Jackson' with him and from time to time over the years when my mom wasn't feeling well, he would call me to come out on the road to sing for momma.

"It was amazing."

June Carter died at the age of 73 on May 15, 2003, with Johnny Cash passing away on September 12 the same year.

The Hart Street gig starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £16.50.

Boy band member to play drag queen

IN 1994, actors Terence Stamp, Hugo Weaving and Guy Pearce portrayed drag queens in the Oscar-nominated movie, 'The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert'.

By James Richings

Now, 22 years later, the comedy drama's legacy has moved on to the stage as 'Priscilla, Queen of the Desert' makes it way to the New Theatre, Oxford.

Its run of eight performances at the George Street venue from Monday, June 13, to Saturday, June 18, will see boy band Blue member Duncan James portray the character Anthony "Tick" Belrose, also known by 'her' drag name, Mitzi Mitosis.

And with the show ending its 10-month tour at the New Theatre, Duncan hopes he can give the musical a great send-off.

"I just the love the reaction you get at the end of the show where you see the standing ovations," the 38-year-old told the Oxfordshire Guardian.

"You take the audience away from their everyday life on a journey, where for two hours they are on a rollercoaster of emotions and, as an actor, I helped to create that rollercoaster.

"And, as an actor, you feel rewarded because you've given the audience a great show.

"You have given them great value for money and you've taken them on a journey with you."

The film focuses on three drag queens who climb aboard a bus, called 'Priscilla', as they make their way from Sydney to Alice Springs for a four-week run at a popular casino.

However, during their road trip, the trio find themselves meeting people from all different walks of life, which sees them gain fans and praise, whilst also getting abused both mentally and physically.

Both the negative and positive experiences give the trio new perspectives in life.

Duncan is hoping that as well as enjoying the show, it will help them understand that homophobia is very much still an issue in today's society.

"It tackles a lot of subjects based on sexuality and acceptance which is filled with numerous jukebox hits and dance floor tunes along with amazing costumes that make the story so fabulous and wonderful," Duncan said.

He added: "Over the last 15 years since Blue started, which was in May 2001, I'm very proud that I have constantly worked.

"I've never been without work and I've always worked within this industry.

"I'm very proud that I have had the opportunity to do so much such as presenting the National Lottery, going on Dancing on Ice, being in musical theatre, performing with musicians like Stevie Wonder and Elton John, win BRIT awards, travel the world and I'm not done yet."

Tickets for the show cost from £10 to £42.50.

FURIOUS FOLLY
Taking place in the centenary year of the battle of the Somme, Furious Folly creates an evocative, disorientating war-torn landscape from sound, light and pyrotechnics. Drawing on the anti-war spirit of the Dadaist artists of the time, this powerful and poignant open-air performance has been created by Mark Anderson, the artist behind the internationally renowned Power Plant. Anderson and his team have made a unique show that rails against the futility and madness of the Great War, and challenges the inhumanity and senselessness of conflicts past and present.
An unmissable experience, this remarkable and moving free event forms part of 14-18 NOW, the UK-wide arts programme to mark the First World War centenary.

New Vauxhall Astra worth a look

WHEN you think about buying a new car, you need to consider quite a few things before you decide.

For instance, is it fuel efficient? Does it have a DAB radio? Does it come with plenty of space?

Of course, these are just a few of the things that go through a car buyer's mind – including what will it look like on your driveway and what will your neighbours think?

Well, for once, I am going to give you a few reasons to consider why I think you should buy the new Vauxhall Astra over one rival, the Volkswagen Golf.

By Anthony Yates

Engine:

The 1.0-litre ecoFLEX Direct Injection Turbo engine is a three-cylinder petrol engine that produces 105PS and a maximum torque of 170Nm, making it incredibly good at getting a move on quickly.

0-60mph is in at about 10 seconds and if you add in the start/stop system and the fact it has low-rolling-resistance tyres it will at a push return over 60mpg - it will honest! Maximum speed is also up at 124mph.

On the road:

The new Astra handles well – but I feel it is not as much fun to drive as the VW Golf and although the steering is direct which is one better than the Golf, the Astra still feels much too heavy for my liking.

Saying that, grip levels are good and the Astra has no problem dealing with our poor road network of potholes and uneven surfaces.

Inside:

The interior is fresh and all the buttons and dials are clear.

The front seats have plenty of adjustment to them and feel well made and very comfortable.

Rear leg room is also good and the boot space is fantastic.

I also like the wide boot opening - this will make stowing away a large item a doddle.

But some of the plastics do look cheap – although this is a car that was designed to be cheap to own and cheap to run.

Yes it's not as good as a Kia's interior, but it's as good as what VW have come up with in the Golf.

Safety:

Five out of five stars in Euro NCAPs for the new Astra and all models come with front and side airbags.

Plus, standard on all Astras is Vauxhall's stability control system that will help you stay in full control if you do happen to get into trouble.

To sum up:

As good as a VW Golf in the same like-for-like form, plus it's a better pick when it comes to price, space and equipment. Check out the Astra – it's a great buy.

• Price: £15,995 (from) OTR.

Williams aim to recover after poor Monaco race

By Adam Flinn

WILLIAMS Martini Racing are confident that they will produce a much better showing ahead of this Sunday's Canadian Grand Prix.

The long straights and tight chicanes of the Montreal circuit should play to the strengths of the Williams cars, which struggled last time out in Monaco.

Felipe Massa could only score a solitary point for the Grove-based squad around the twists and turns of the principality on May 29 as he came home in 10th place, while Valtteri Bottas fared even worse in 12th.

Bottas made the podium at last year's race in Canada, and the team are looking for a repeat performance in 2016.

Pat Symonds, chief technical officer at Williams, said: "Being a fast track with long straights, the circuit certainly favours the characteristics of the Williams car, so this should mark a return to form for the team.

"Good top speed, stable braking with the track being hard on brakes, good change of direction for the multiple chicanes and adequate traction are key things required here.

"It's also the second race in a row that we see the new ultra soft tyre, but even with this we expect most cars to be on a one-stop strategy.

"And we have a number of new aerodynamic and chassis parts to continue pushing our development of the FW38."

Massa has never finished on the podium in Canada in 12 attempts, although he came close in 2014 when he was involved in a dramatic collision with Sergio Perez on the last lap as the pair were catching third-placed Sebastian Vettel.

He said: "In the last two years we've done really well in Canada, so I really hope we can repeat that performance again this year. I hope we can have a competitive race."

Bottas got Williams' first podium of 2015 at last year's race after putting in a strong performance to jump ahead of Kimi Raikkonen's Ferrari.

He said: "Canada is one of my favourite races, the track is pretty fast and it's really enjoyable to drive."

Oxfordshire well beaten by Cornwall in season opener

OXFORDSHIRE CCC were comfortably beaten by Cornwall CCC inside three innings in their league opener on Sunday – their rival's first win by an innings since 2005.

Cornwall batsman Brad Wadlan got within four runs of their 78-year-old individual record with a knock of 191, in a highly impressive performance.

In the first innings Lloyd Sabin got two maidens in 15 overs, and Luke Ryan bowled Tom Hughes out for a duck in the best of Oxfordshire's bowling, as Cornwall set a benchmark of 349.

Jonathan Cater led Oxfordshire's batting with five fours from 48 balls for a total of 32.

But it didn't help much as Oxfordshire were bowled all out for a lowly 144.

They were put in to bat again and George Munsey then hit six fours for a total of 48 before being caught and bowled by Libby in the second innings.

His total was equalled by Cater who managed four fours and a six before Oxfordshire were again bowled out cheaply for 146, meaning Cornwall won by an innings and 59 runs, topping the first league table of the season.

Technical troubles for Smith

OXFORD MotoGP rider Bradley Smith's weekend came to an unfortunate end in Catalunya after withdrawing six laps in due to a technical issue with the engine.

The Monster Yamaha Tech3 rider began the race from the fifth row of the grid and had a solid start after taking the outside line into the first turn.

However he dropped to the back of the field with an issue and despite his best efforts was forced to retire a few laps later.

The result leaves him 12th in the championship on 29 points, and marked a disappointing end to the weekend for Smith, who will seek to bounce back at the Dutch Grand Prix in a fortnight's time.

"It goes without saying that this is quite an upsetting way to finish the Grand Prix," said the 25-year-old.

"As soon as we began, I noticed that something wasn't right with the bike, even though I didn't know immediately what it was.

"We'll work out the issue and then start again with testing.

"Nevertheless, I am certain that we can get right back to where we need to be at the next round."

Oxford RL pick up first win in difficult season

By Dominic Thomas

SOARING temperatures made for a feisty derby between Oxford RL and Hemel Stags on Sunday.

In a game that resulted in two sendings-off and a sin-binning, Oxford managed to keep their cool and run out as eventual 24–18 winners.

The result gave the Blues their fifth consecutive win over the Stags and crucially their first points of the league season.

The Blues' opening try came with a precision cross-field kick from Danny Allan, caught in full flight by Joshua Nathaniel who danced through the Hemel defence to score, with Allan converting.

The Blues then lost Daniel Igbinedion to a sin-binning for involving himself in a fracas, before Sidaqi Adebiyi's shoulder injury ruled him out of the game.

The Blues then crossed the whitewash with Burnett and Nicholson but both attempts were chalked off by the referee.

It seemed neither team could alter the scoreboard until Casey Canterbury scored under the sticks, after strong running from Igbinedion in the 36th minute, with Allan again converting.

The momentum continued with a try from back Andrew Hoggins and more extras from Allan.

Hemel's Mike Stewart lashing out at Jordan Siddons then earned him a red card, along with Blues replacement Jack Smith, who also reacted.

Hemel sneaked in their first try from Lloyd Jones which was successfully converted just before half-time.

In the second half a couple of Blues errors gifted the Stags good field position, resulting in a try from centre Kam Pierce Paul, and a successful conversion by Swindells.

The Blues then hit back with a successfully converted try from Marcus Brooker.

A rattled Blues defence then let Aaron Hall nip in to take the final score to 24-18.

Grainger looks set for Rio heartbreak

FOUR-TIME Olympian and London 2012 gold medallist Katherine Grainger looks set to miss out on selection for the Team GB rowing squad for the 2016 Rio Olympics.

Grainger, 40, and former double-sculls partner Vicky Thornley, 28, decided to focus on the women's eight, but both failed to win places last month.

British Rowing are set to announce their full squad later today, with the six-time world champion and Oxford Brookes Chancellor's inclusion looking unlikely unless a decision is made to reform the double-sculls pair.

In a statement, British Rowing said: "Selection in sport is always an emotive issue, never more than in Olympic year.

"British Rowing is confident that the process that we have followed for both Vicky Thornley and Katherine Grainger has been appropriate.

"They were clearly disappointed with their performance in the women's double scull at the European Championships in early May.

"Whilst we had not lost confidence in them and felt they were still a potential medal boat they asked to be considered instead for selection to the women's eight, which is already a proven medal winning combination.

"We opened up a process and gave them the opportunity. They have not been successful and we are now looking at next steps in a selection process which is ongoing."

Taste of international honours for Carroll

OXFORD United's defender Canice Carroll has become the latest United player to receive international honours after representing Republic of Ireland under-18s.

Carroll played a full 90 minutes in a 3–1 win over Hungary at the U18 International Tournament on Thursday, before missing out on their loss to hosts Sweden with a slight calf injury.

He joins United's international brigade of Callum O'Dowda, receiving his first senior cap for Ireland, Benji Buchel at Liechtenstein and Max Crocombe who is with the senior New Zealand squad.

Carroll told the club's website: "It was a little bit frustrating but it was another fantastic experience, just being part of the set up, playing against different teams in Europe."

Although born locally, Carroll qualifies for Ireland through his father Liam.

He added: "My dad's family are Irish and I know my family are very proud to see me wearing the green shirt."

The versatile defender, who joined the club at 14, said seeing the likes of 21-year-old compatriot O'Dowda help secure promotion has spurred him on.

Plato sees return to form after hat-trick of podiums

THREE third-place podiums from Jason Plato helped Silverline Subaru BMR Racing record their best results of the season by far.

In the first race, Plato battled with Honda's Gordon Shedden to eventually take third and complete a double-podium alongside team-mate and race winner Colin Turkington – the team's first podiums of the championship.

For race two, Turkington held off Plato for second place, making it another double-podium for Subaru.

The reverse grid in race three saw Plato line up ahead of his team-mates in fifth, and clinched his hat-trick of third-place finishes with a last gasp pass at Lodge Corner.

Silverline Subaru BMR Racing also picked up the Team Trophy for the weekend, received by the Subaru UK's managing director Paul Tunnicliffe.

"What a fantastic weekend for everyone at Silverline Subaru BMR Racing," said Plato.

"We should be enormously proud of our successes at Oulton Park.

"We really have arrived in some style. The future is very bright for us all and I can't wait to get back in the car for Croft."

The next races are at Croft in Yorkshire on June 19.

Stars roster shaping up

OXFORD City Stars have signed three returning players in preparation for their assault on next season's NIHL campaign.

Brothers Josh and Ben Ealey-Newman have penned deals alongside netminder Tom Annetts.

Annetts joined Stars in the middle of last season to guard the goal at Oxpens Road.

He came from English Premier League side Bracknell Bees and is hailed as one of the best in the division, posting a save percentage of .895 for Oxford.

Annetts said: "I didn't really know what to expect with the standard of hockey in this division but I'm really impressed with quality of some of the players around the league and in our team.

"I have been pretty busy this summer with the birth of my second son, but I'm now itching to get started and bring the boys to support the Stars in September."

Stars head coach Simon Anderson said Annetts was instrumental in making Stars the team they became to finish fourth and called him "the best goalie in the league".

Forward Ben Ealey-Newman, 19, is back on side for the Stars in a bid to add to his points tally of 20 goals in 35 games last season.

He also took 48 penalty minutes and has been working on fitness for September.

Anderson called him a "must sign" gritty attacker who was "outstanding" for Stars last season.

He will be joined by Josh Ealey-Newman, who is aiming to emulate his older brother's first season for Oxford.

The 17-year-old scored twice in his 16 appearances for Stars last season. He was on a two-way contract also playing for London Racers in the league below, notching 20 goals and 31 assists in NIHL2.

Brighton clash

FOOTBALL: Oxford United will take on Brighton and Hove Albion in the latest pre-season friendly to be announced by the club.

The U's will host the Championship play-off semi-finalists at the Kassam Stadium on July 26.

It comes after United recently announced a tie with Premier League champions Leicester City for July 19.

Other friendlies have been scheduled against Solihull Moors, Bath City, Barnet and Dorking.

Final defeat

DARTS: Oxfordshire county darts player Deta Hedman lost a second final in the space of a week to Lisa Ashton as she was beaten 5-3 in the Women's BDO International Open Singles.

Hedman beat Tammy Mackenzie, Sarah Chick, Maggie Sutton and Trina Gulliver on her way to the finals at Brean Sands in Somerset.

But she was unable to overcome Ashton once again on Sunday, having previously lost to her in the final of the BDO World Trophy on May 30.

Eddie misses cut

GOLF: It was another disappointing showing for Abingdon golfer Eddie Pepperell last week, as he missed the cut for the second week in a row.

Rounds of 77 and 71 at the Nordea Masters in Sweden meant he ended Friday in a tie for 108th place, and did not progress to the weekend's play.

The tournament was won by England's Matt Fitzpatrick, who ended Sunday on 16 under par.

Eales buys shares of director leaving to take up league job

Chairman increases his stake in United

By Dominic Thomas

OXFORD United chairman Darryl Eales has strengthened his commitment to the club by buying out departing fellow director Ian Lenagan's shares this week.

Eales, who has been chairman since 2014, purchased the balance of former United owner Lenagan's shares, with Lenagan stepping down from the board with immediate effect.

Lenegan, who has been involved with the U's since 2006, will become chairman of the Football League this summer, and as a result, must end his involvement with the club.

Eales now owns 84 per cent of the shares, with fellow director Peter Lee continuing to hold five per cent. The balance of 11 per cent is held by about 500 small shareholders.

The chairman told the club's website: "I am delighted to increase my stake in the club, allowing Ian to take up his new post.

"I'd like to congratulate Ian on his appointment and wish him well for the future."

He added: "Oxford United have benefitted enormously from his experience, his planning and his financial support over the last ten years and, on a personal level, I'd like to thank him for his friendship and help over the last two years."

"The last two seasons have been a wonderful experience, especially the last 18 months.

"I am very proud to be chairman of this football club and I believe the bond between the board, the coaching staff and the fans is an important factor in our success."

Speaking of the timing of his takeover following the club's promotion, he said, "Ian's new role has led to the purchase of his shares a little earlier than we had originally planned but, as we approach our first League One campaign for many years, I think we can look forward with justifiable optimism and confidence"

Lenegan, who is also owner of Super League rugby team Wigan Warriors, said in a statement: "I have no choice but to divest my shares in Oxford United in order to take up the position as independent chairman of the Football League for the next three years.

"However, I do it with delight firstly to see Oxford United promoted to League One and, secondly, to see Darryl Eales acquire the shares.

"This shows Darryl's increased investment in and commitment to Oxford United whilst ending with emotion 10 years of formal Lenagan family involvement in Oxford United.

"Both my sons and I look forward to continuing to support the club whenever possible."
